God Gives Me Water

Matthew 5:1, 2; 6:25-34

Read
Together

God gives us water.
Can you point to the water? Water is good to drink. And water is good to take a bath
in. Thank You, God,
for giving us water.

Bible Words

"God gives me good things"

(based on Matthew 7:11).

Say the Bible Words and have your child look in a mirror. Say, "God will give you good things."

God gives me water to drink (pretend to drink)
and to wash dishes in my sink.
(pretend to wash a dish)
The water falls from the sky (wiggle fingers down)
to water the flowers so dry.

Helping with Water

Ask your child to help you water plants or give water to your pet. Give your child a cup with some water. Show how to carefully pour the water over a plant or into your pet's water bowl. Remind your child that God gives us water.

Water Play

Have your child sit in the tub. Provide various cups, bowls, and strainers as toys. While playing in the water, talk about how water keeps us clean. Say, "God gives us water. Thank You, God!"

Here is a little baby!
Can you point to the baby? God made the little baby with
two eyes, two ears,
a nose, and a mouth.
Thank You, God!

Bible Words

"God made people"

(based on Isaiah 45:12).

Say the Bible Words and ask, "Can you point to yourself? Can you point to me?" Clap hands when done and say, "Yay, God made people!"

God made babies (hold a baby doll)
so sweet and small.
Babies like to sit and crawl.

(sit up the doll; then make it crawl)

Baby Care

Encourage your child to care for a baby doll. As your child washes, feeds, and changes the doll, talk about how you cared for your child when she was a baby. Pray and thank God for making babies and for making your child.

The Cutest Baby Face

Get out your family photo albums, and look at your child's baby pictures. As you look at the photos, talk about all the things your child liked to do as a baby. Explain that God made your child and that God made all babies.
