Volunteer for Winn's 250th Anniversary Events

It'll take a village to host a celebration worthy of our 250th birthday!

Sign up in the foyer to join site prep and clean up teams for the Saturday, July 4th community picnic and homecoming service and luncheon on Sunday, July 5th. Workers are also needed for various game and craft booths.

Contact Barbara Johnston with questions about needs and opportunities to help welcome our neighbors and highlight how God has blessed this church over the years!

A special "Thank you" to Barbara Johnston for always decorating our church so beautifully. Thank you for the most recent addition to our church- The "Winn's Wall" in the foyer looks amazing! Thank you for always serving with love, beauty, and faith.

Mark your calendars for Family Game Night on Wednesday, June 3rd from 6:30pm-8pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Bring a favorite board game and snack to share. Invite a friend...we would love to meet them.....and beat them at their own game.

On this Memorial Day weekend, we remember, we honor, and we give thanks to God for the U.S. Military Personnel and all the men and women who died while serving this country. We are the Land of the Free Because of the Brave.

Winn's 250th Birthday Trivia

Q: How did God protect church records during the Civil War?

A: The Union Army destroyed many county courthouses and their contents as they approached Richmond. While Hanover County records were being transported to Richmond for safekeeping, three books containing deeds for 1733 to 1792 fell off the wagon and were returned to the courthouse. Thanks to a tip from Barbara Parker and her cousin Bill Shelton, Rev. Tom Lacy located a copy of Winn's deed in the Shelton-Winn-Oliver papers at the Virginia State Library.
