Paul Helps People Follow Jesus: Acts 28:16, 30, 31 and selected verses from Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians

Family Talk

Children cannot wait to tell something that excites them.

When we have good news, we want to share it! As followers of Jesus, we have very good news. The good news of God sending His Son, Jesus, to save and to help us is the best news ever.

Begin in your own home to tell this good news. Your child will learn to tell about Jesus from your example. Model an excitement when telling Bible stories of Jesus. Be enthusiastic when you sing songs about Him. Use bright colors as you draw or color pictures of Jesus to hang around your home.

Make every room in your home a place where you tell your child how much Jesus loves and cares for him.

Bible Memory FUN

Mark 16:15

Find this verse in a family Bible. Purchase an inflatable world-globe ball to toss back and forth as you say the Bible verse with your child.

This week, help your child remember:

We can tell about Jesus.

Family Fun...

House Arrest. Gather the family and make paper-chain handcuffs. Chain one person to a chair. Have another person act as a house guard. The person chained to the chair can tell something about Jesus.

Then the person can be "released" and another person takes his place. Review the Bible story of Paul in Acts 28:16, 30, 31. Pray and ask God to help your family be brave like Paul when telling others about Jesus.

Daily Talks with God

Use these thoughts at mealtimes, bedtimes, or other times when you pray with your child this week.

God, show me who I need to tell about Jesus.

Jesus, I will follow You by choosing to do what is right.

Thank You, God, for Your Son, Jesus.
