There will be a VBS volunteer meeting this Tuesday, June 2nd at 6:30pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Please help to welcome the Chris Zion Mindi family from Austin this week by volunteering to host them for lunch, dinner, or an outing on Friday, June 5th or Saturday, June 6th. Get in touch with Barbara Bowen at barbarabbowen2@gmail.com to let her know what day and time you can host them so she can finalize the schedule.

Join us for lunch and fellowship with Chris Zion and Sarah Mindi and their family after Sunday School on Sunday, June 7th. Fried chicken and drinks will be provided. Please bring side and dessert to share.

Also, a love offering will be collected to support their ministry to Indian immigrants at the Anchor Austin Church in Texas.

Bring a favorite board game and snack to share. Invite a friend...we would love to meet them.....and beat them at their own game.

For the month of June we will be collecting small cars and toys for OCC.

Winn's 250th Birthday Trivia

Q: How many Civil War veterans are buried in Winn's cemetery?

A: We know of at least two. The first is a Union soldier, Pvt. William Dennis Miller, who served with Co. D of the highly decorated 46th Pennsylvania Volunteers and died in Ashland, Virginia, in 1900. The second is a Confederate soldier, Pvt. James Vespucius McAllister, who served with Company E (The Ashland Grays) of the 15th VA Infantry, and died December 12, 1916. He was captured and imprisoned at Fort Monroe and discharged from service on April 20, 1865, as Abraham Lincoln lay in state at the U.S. Capitol Rotunda.
